How to use this guide

Read Section 5 first. In hotel recruitment, timing decides more than anything else. Then find your department in Section 4, prepare during September, and apply heavily from October onwards.

1 Why Marriott Is a Strong Target in Dubai

Marriott International is one of the largest hotel companies in the world. In Dubai it operates more than 40 hotels under 23 different brands, employing thousands of people across every kind of job — from kitchen porters to general managers. That is a very large number of opportunities inside one single group.

- One application, many hotels. Marriott uses one central career website for all its Dubai properties.
- Very strong internal promotion. Marriott prefers to promote its own people. Once you are inside, moving up, or moving to another hotel or another country, becomes far easier.
- Every skill level is needed. Hotels recruit from entry level with no experience right up to executive positions.
- Structured training. Proper learning programmes, cross-training between departments, and recognised certificates.
- Regional office in Dubai. Marriott's Middle East head office is in Dubai and looks after more than 200 hotels. It offers cluster and regional roles above hotel level.
- Worldwide staff benefits. Discounted rooms and food across Marriott hotels globally — a real, usable benefit.

The single best tip in this guide

If you cannot get the job you want, take a job you can get inside the same hotel, then transfer internally after 12 months. Internal transfer is one of the easiest career moves in hospitality, and it is how a very large number of hotel managers actually started.

2 Marriott Brands Operating in Dubai

Marriott groups its brands into four levels. The level tells you a lot about the job. Luxury hotels have larger teams and very high service standards. Select Service and Longer Stay hotels have smaller teams, so one person handles many duties — which means faster learning and quicker promotion.

Luxury — 7 brands

Brand	Hotels in Dubai
Bulgari	Bulgari Resort Dubai (Jumeira Bay Island)
The Ritz-Carlton	The Ritz-Carlton Dubai (JBR), The Ritz-Carlton DIFC
St. Regis	St. Regis Downtown Dubai, St. Regis Dubai The Palm, St. Regis Gardens
EDITION	The Dubai EDITION (Downtown)
W Hotels	W Dubai – The Palm, W Dubai – Mina Seyahi
JW Marriott	JW Marriott Marquis Hotel Dubai, JW Marriott Hotel Marina
The Luxury Collection	Grosvenor House, Al Maha Desert Resort & Spa

Premium — 9 brands

Brand	Hotels in Dubai

Marriott Hotels	Marriott Resort Palm Jumeirah, Marriott Hotel Al Jaddaf, Marriott Hotel Downtown
Sheraton	Sheraton Grand (Sheikh Zayed Road), Sheraton Jumeirah Beach, Sheraton Dubai Creek, Sheraton Mall of the Emirates
Westin	The Westin Dubai Mina Seyahi Beach Resort

Residence Inn	Residence Inn Sheikh Zayed Road, Residence Inn Al Jaddaf
Element	Element Al Jaddaf, Element Me'aisam, Element Dubai Airport
Homes & Villas by Marriott Bonvoy	Rental platform only — no hotel jobs here

Very important — who actually pays your salary?

Marriott usually does not own these hotels. It manages them for owners such as Emaar, Meraas, Dubai Holding, Al Habtoor and The First Group.

- In a managed hotel, staff are on Marriott's payroll. The job appears on careers.marriott.com.
- In a franchised hotel, staff are on the owner's payroll. The job may appear only on LinkedIn, Bayt or Indeed — never on the Marriott website.

If you use only the Marriott website, you will miss a large share of the vacancies. Use all four channels in Section 6.

3 How a Hotel Is Organised — The 13 Departments

Every hotel is run by a General Manager. Under the GM sits the executive committee, and each member heads one department. Understanding this structure helps you know who will interview you and where you fit.

Department	Headed by	What the department does
Front Office	Front Office Manager	Check-in, check-out, guest requests, the face of the hotel
Housekeeping	Executive Housekeeper	Cleanliness of rooms and public areas, laundry, linen
Food & Beverage Service	F&B Director	Restaurants, bars, room service, banquets
Kitchen (Culinary)	Executive Chef	All food production and food safety
Finance & Accounts	Director of Finance	Money in, money out, reporting, controls
Human Resources	Director of HR	Recruitment, visas, payroll support, training, welfare
Sales & Marketing	Director of Sales & Marketing	Corporate contracts, travel agents, events, promotion
Revenue & Reservations	Director of Revenue	Room pricing, availability, booking channels
Engineering	Director of Engineering	Building maintenance, HVAC, electrical, plumbing, safety systems
Security / Loss Prevention	Security Manager	Guest and staff safety, CCTV, incident handling
Spa, Recreation & Wellness	Spa / Recreation Manager	Spa, gym, pool, beach, kids club
Information Technology	IT Manager	Hotel systems, network, guest Wi-Fi, cyber security
Purchasing & Stores	Purchasing Manager	Buying, supplier management, receiving, stores

Two useful words you will hear constantly

Heart of House means the staff-only areas behind the scenes. Front of House means anywhere guests can see you. Jobs are often described using these two words.

4 Every Major Job, Department by Department

Each table below runs from entry level at the top to senior level at the bottom. Find your department, find your level, and note the exact job titles — you will need them for the LinkedIn alerts in Section 9.

4.1 Front Office & Guest Services

Job title	What the person actually does
Bell Attendant / Porter	Carries luggage, guides guests, assists at the entrance
Doorman / Valet Parking	Welcomes arriving guests, manages the driveway and car parking

4.4 Kitchen (Culinary)

Job title	What the person actually does
Kitchen Steward	Cleaning, dishwashing and kitchen hygiene support
Commis III / II / I	Junior cook levels — preparation, basic cooking, learning the section
Demi Chef de Partie	Assists in running one section of the kitchen
Chef de Partie	Fully runs one section: grill, cold kitchen, pastry, butchery, Indian, Asian
Pastry Chef / Baker	All desserts, breads and pastries
Sous Chef	Second in command of the kitchen; runs the shift
Executive Sous Chef	Deputy to the Executive Chef across all kitchens
Executive Chef	Heads all food production, menus, costs and food safety

Best entry doors: Commis III, Kitchen Steward. Most valued skills: a culinary certificate or diploma, HACCP food safety training, speciality cuisine skills (Italian, Japanese, Arabic, Indian), consistency under pressure.

4.5 Finance & Accounts

Job title	What the person actually does
General Cashier	Collects and counts all cash, banks it, controls petty cash and floats
Accounts Payable Officer	Checks supplier invoices against orders and delivery notes, prepares payments
Accounts Receivable Officer	Invoices companies and travel agents, follows up collection, manages the city ledger
Income Auditor	Verifies that every dirham the hotel earned yesterday was recorded and banked correctly
Cost Controller	Controls food and beverage cost, stock counts, recipe costing, wastage
Paymaster / Payroll Officer	Runs payroll, leave records, gratuity provision, WPS submission
Accounting Supervisor / Chief Accountant	Supervises the team, closes the month, prepares the trial balance
Assistant Director of Finance	Prepares the profit and loss account, budgets, forecasts and analysis
Director of Finance / Financial Controller	Heads the department, sits on the executive committee, owns the owner relationship
Cluster / Area Director of Finance	Looks after several hotels together — real analysis and strategy work

Best entry doors for non-hotel accountants: Income Auditor, Accounts Payable, Accounts Receivable, Paymaster. Most valued skills: Opera PMS, Sun Systems, Micros, advanced Excel, UAE VAT and Corporate Tax, USALI reporting.

4.6 Human Resources & Administration

Job title	What the person actually does
HR Coordinator / Administrator	Employee records, letters, joining and exit formalities, filing
Public Relations Officer (PRO)	Visas, labour cards, Emirates ID, licence renewals with government offices

Staff Accommodation Supervisor	Manages staff housing, transport and welfare
HR Officer / Executive	Day-to-day employee relations, attendance, leave, grievances
HR Manager	Runs the people function for the hotel
Director of Human Resources	Heads HR, sits on the executive committee

Best entry doors: HR Coordinator, Administration Assistant. Most valued skills: UAE Labour Law knowledge, MOHRE and GDRFA online systems, Arabic (a strong advantage for a PRO), discretion and confidentiality.

4.7 Sales & Marketing

Job title	What the person actually does
Sales Coordinator	Supports the sales team with contracts, proposals and client records
Marketing Executive	Social media, promotions, website content, photo shoots
Sales Executive	Visits companies and travel agents to bring in business
Events / Groups Coordinator	Plans weddings, conferences and group bookings with the client
Sales Manager (Corporate / Leisure / MICE)	Owns a market segment and its revenue target
Director of Sales	Leads the sales team
Director of Sales & Marketing	Heads all commercial activity, sits on the executive committee

Best entry doors: Sales Coordinator, Marketing Executive. Most valued skills: a UAE driving licence, an existing client network, Opera Sales & Catering, negotiation, presentation skills.

4.8 Revenue Management & Reservations

Job title	What the person actually does
Reservations Agent	Takes room bookings by phone and email, enters them into the system
Reservations Supervisor	Checks bookings, handles group blocks, supervises the team
Revenue Analyst	Analyses booking data, competitor rates and demand forecasts
Reservations Manager	Runs the reservations office
Revenue Manager	Sets room prices daily to maximise revenue
Director of Revenue Management	Owens pricing strategy for the whole hotel or cluster

Best entry doors: Reservations Agent, Revenue Analyst. Most valued skills: strong Excel, comfort with numbers and data, Opera, channel manager systems. This is one of the fastest-growing and best-paid non-executive career paths in hotels.

4.9 Engineering & Maintenance

Job title	What the person actually does
Maintenance Technician / Handyman	General repairs in guest rooms and public areas
Electrician	All electrical systems, lighting, power distribution
Plumber	Water supply, drainage, bathroom fittings
HVAC Technician	Air conditioning, chillers, ventilation
Painter / Carpenter	Finishing, furniture repair, room refurbishment
Pool & Water Features Technician	Pool plant, water chemistry, fountains
Shift Engineer / Duty Engineer	Runs the engineering shift, responds to breakdowns
Chief Engineer / Assistant Director	Plans maintenance, energy management, contractor control
Director of Engineering	Heads the department, owns safety and building compliance

Best entry doors: Maintenance Technician, Electrician, HVAC Technician. Most valued skills: a recognised trade certificate, a UAE driving licence, fire and life safety system knowledge, energy saving experience.

4.10 Security / Loss Prevention

Job title	What the person actually does
Security Officer	Patrols the property, checks access, monitors staff entrance
CCTV Operator	Monitors cameras, records and reports incidents
Security Supervisor	Leads the shift, writes incident reports, handles investigations
Security / Loss Prevention Manager	Heads safety and security for the hotel

Requirement note: Dubai security roles usually require a SIRA licence (Security Industry Regulatory Agency). Many hotels will help you obtain it, but having it already makes you far more employable.

4.11 Spa, Recreation & Wellness

Job title	What the person actually does
Spa Receptionist	Bookings, payments, welcoming spa guests
Spa Therapist	Massage and beauty treatments
Beautician / Nail Technician	Salon services
Lifeguard	Pool and beach safety
Fitness Instructor / Personal Trainer	Gym supervision and personal training
Kids Club Attendant	Children's activities and supervision
Recreation Supervisor	Runs pool, beach and activity operations
Spa Manager	Heads the spa: revenue, therapists, treatment menu

Requirement note: Therapists, lifeguards and trainers normally need a DHA (Dubai Health Authority) licence or an approved certification. Lifeguards need an internationally recognised lifeguard certificate.

4.12 Information Technology

Job title	What the person actually does
IT Support Technician	Day-to-day support for staff computers, printers and guest Wi-Fi

Systems / Network Administrator	Servers, network, backups, cyber security
IT Supervisor	Leads the small IT team, manages vendors
IT Manager / Director of IT	Heads all technology for the hotel or cluster

Most valued skills: Opera PMS and Micros support experience, networking certification, cyber security awareness, and the patience to support non-technical staff.

4.13 Purchasing & Stores

Job title	What the person actually does
Receiving Clerk	Checks every delivery against the purchase order before it enters the hotel
Storekeeper	Controls the stores, issues goods to departments, maintains stock records
Purchasing Officer	Raises purchase orders, compares quotations, maintains supplier records
Purchasing Manager	Heads procurement, negotiates contracts, controls supplier costs

Best entry doors: Receiving Clerk, Storekeeper. Note: this department usually reports into Finance, so it is a good sideways route into an accounting career.

The five easiest entry points if you have no hotel experience at all

Room Attendant • Waiter / Steward • Security Officer • Guest Service Agent • Commis III.

These roles are recruited in the largest volumes and are most open to candidates from outside hospitality. Get in, perform well for a year, then transfer internally to the department you actually want.

5 The Hiring Calendar — Read This Twice

★ OCTOBER TO DECEMBER IS THE BIGGEST HIRING WINDOW OF THE YEAR

Dubai's tourist season runs from October to April. Hotels fill up, restaurants get busy, exhibitions and conferences begin, and revenue rises sharply.

Because of this, hotels build their teams up before the season starts. Recruitment becomes very heavy from the beginning of October right through to December, across every single department — rooms, kitchen, service, finance, engineering, everything. This is when the largest number of vacancies appear, when new budgets are approved, and when new headcount is released.

If you apply during only one part of the year, make it October to December.

The full year at a glance

Period	Hiring activity	What you should be doing
July - August	Very low	Quiet summer season. Prepare your CV, LinkedIn profile and certificates. Do not waste applications now.
September	Starting to rise	Finish all preparation. Build your network and job alerts. Send your first applications late in the month.
October - December	Very high — peak	Apply heavily. Follow up. Attend interviews. This is your window.
January - March	Medium	Replacement hiring continues, plus events season. Still a reasonable time to apply.
April - June	Low to medium	Season ends, budgets tighten. Focus on networking rather than applications.

Two extra reasons this window is so powerful

- New budgets are approved. Most hotels approve next year's budget in the last quarter. Approved budget means approved headcount, and approved headcount means real vacancies — not advertisements that go nowhere.
- Year-end staff movement. Many employees resign after taking their annual leave and bonus, creating replacement vacancies at exactly the same moment.

Practical instruction

Plan backwards from 1 October. Your CV, LinkedIn profile, certificates, references and interview practice should all be finished by 25 September. When the vacancies open you want to apply within 48 hours — not start preparing.

6 Where to Apply — The Four Channels

Never rely on only one channel. Each one shows different jobs.

Channel 1 — The official Marriott career portal

Website: careers.marriott.com

How to filter: Location = "Dubai, United Arab Emirates", then choose your Job Category — Rooms & Guest Services, Food & Beverage & Culinary, Finance & Accounting, Human Resources, Sales & Marketing, Engineering & Facilities, Information Technology, Administrative, Spa & Recreation, Loss Prevention.

Shows: Every Marriott-managed hotel, plus the Dubai regional office.

Action: Create your profile once, save the search, and turn on email alerts.

Channel 2 — LinkedIn

Usually the fastest channel, and often shows jobs before the portal does. Section 9 explains the full system.

Channel 3 — UAE job boards (this is where franchised hotels advertise)

Hospitality-specific: Hozpitality.com, Caterer Middle East, Hosco, Hcareers

General UAE boards: Bayt.com, Indeed.ae, GulfTalent, Naukrigulf, Dubizzle Jobs

Why it matters: Franchised hotels recruit through the owner company, so those jobs never appear on the Marriott website.

Channel 4 — Walk in, and open days

Many Dubai hotels still accept CVs at the staff entrance, addressed to the Human Resources Department. It is old-fashioned, but in October and November it genuinely works — especially for Housekeeping, F&B, Kitchen and Security roles. Hotels also hold walk-in interview days and attend job fairs before the season. Watch the hotel's own social media pages for announcements.

If you walk in: go on a weekday morning, dress formally, carry five printed CVs and copies of your passport, visa, Emirates ID and certificates, and be polite to the security staff at the gate — they decide whether your CV reaches HR.

Warning — protect yourself from job fraud

Marriott and its hotels never charge candidates any fee. Nobody legitimate asks you for money for a job, a visa, or an "application processing charge". Be suspicious of offer letters sent from free email addresses (Gmail, Yahoo), of interviews conducted only by chat message, and of anyone asking for your bank details before you have a signed contract. If in doubt, verify the vacancy directly on careers.marriott.com.

7 The Application Process, Step by Step

- 1 Online application. Upload your CV to careers.marriott.com and answer short questions about your visa status, notice period and salary expectation. Answer honestly — these are elimination questions.
- 2 Computer screening (ATS). Software reads your CV and compares it with the job description, checking keywords, education, years of experience and location. Section 8 explains how to pass this.
- 3 "Olivia", the chat assistant. On some pages a chat window called Olivia may appear. It is Marriott's automated recruiting assistant. It asks basic screening questions and helps book interview slots. Answer clearly and reply quickly — interview slots fill fast. For high-volume roles Olivia does much of the early screening; for senior and professional roles a human recruiter makes the decision.
- 4 HR / Talent Acquisition screening. A phone or video call of 15–30 minutes covering your communication, visa position, notice period and salary expectation. Be ready with a clear 90-second self-introduction.
- 5 Department interview. You meet the head of your department — the Executive Chef, Front Office Manager, Director of Finance, Executive Housekeeper, and so on. This is the real technical interview.
- 6 Practical test or second interview. Chefs cook a trial. Therapists give a trial treatment. Accountants may take an Excel test. Senior candidates meet the General Manager.
- 7 Reference check and offer. Previous employers are contacted, then the offer letter is issued, followed by visa processing, medical test, Emirates ID and onboarding.

Realistic timeline

Application to offer normally takes 3 to 8 weeks. Two weeks of silence is normal, not a rejection. Follow up politely once after 10 working days, once more after another two weeks, then move on.

8 Writing a CV That Passes the Computer

Your CV is read by software before any human sees it. A beautiful design can actually cause rejection, because the software cannot read text that sits inside a table, a text box or a graphic.

✓ Do this	✗ Never do this
Save as .docx or .pdf	Do not send scanned images or unusual formats
Simple one-column layout	No two-column or three-column templates
Plain headings: Work Experience, Education, Skills	No creative headings like "My Journey"
Normal text throughout	No tables, text boxes, icons, logos or charts
Standard font: Arial or Calibri, size 10–12	No decorative fonts or coloured backgrounds
Dates written as Jan 2023 – Present	Do not leave date gaps unexplained

Write “Dubai, UAE” for every UAE role	Do not hide your location or visa status
State your visa status and notice period	Do not include photo, age, religion or marital status
Keep it to 2 pages maximum	Do not write 6 pages of duties

Use the exact words from the job advertisement

If the advertisement says “Guest Service Agent”, do not write “reception staff”. Use their words. Below are the keywords that matter most in each department.

Department	Keywords to include on your CV
Front Office	Opera PMS, check-in, check-out, guest satisfaction, upselling, Marriott Bonvoy, complaint handling, night audit, cashiering
Housekeeping	room turnaround, brand standards, deep cleaning, linen control, lost and found, chemical handling, inspection
F&B Service	Micros POS, upselling, banquet service, wine and beverage knowledge, table service, HACCP, guest engagement
Kitchen	HACCP, food safety, mise en place, portion control, menu development, section management, cuisine speciality
Finance	general ledger, bank reconciliation, accounts payable, accounts receivable, income audit, month-end closing, VAT, corporate tax, USALI, Sun Systems
HR & Admin	UAE Labour Law, MOHRE, GDRFA, visa processing, onboarding, employee relations, payroll support, HRIS
Sales & Marketing	corporate accounts, MICE, RFP, account management, Opera Sales & Catering, revenue targets, social media
Revenue & Reservations	ADR, RevPAR, occupancy, forecasting, channel management, rate parity, competitor analysis, Opera
Engineering	preventive maintenance, HVAC, chillers, BMS, fire and life safety, energy management, electrical, plumbing
Security	SIRA licence, CCTV monitoring, patrolling, incident reporting, emergency response, access control
Spa & Recreation	DHA licence, massage therapy, treatment menu, guest wellness, pool safety, lifeguard certification
IT	Opera support, Micros support, network administration, cyber security, help desk, system backup
Purchasing	purchase order, three-way matching, supplier negotiation, stock control, receiving, inventory count

Always use numbers

Weak sentence	Strong sentence
Handled guest check-in	Checked in 80+ guests daily and maintained a guest satisfaction score above 90%
Cleaned rooms	Serviced 16 guest rooms per shift to brand standard with zero re-clean requests
Worked in the restaurant	Served a 90-cover outlet and increased dessert upselling by 20%
Did accounts payable	Processed 350+ supplier invoices monthly using three-way matching
Maintained the building	Completed 200+ preventive maintenance tasks monthly across 400 guest rooms

Simple CV structure that works for every department

FULL NAME

Dubai, UAE | +971 XX XXX XXXX | your.email@example.com | LinkedIn URL
 Visa: Employment / Visit / Cancelled | Notice period: 30 days | UAE Driving Licence: Yes / No

PROFESSIONAL SUMMARY — three or four lines only: your years of experience, your main skills, your target role.

CORE COMPETENCIES — a simple bullet list of 8-10 skills using the keywords above.

WORK EXPERIENCE

Job Title — Company Name, Dubai, UAE | Jan 2023 – Present
 • Four to six bullet points, each starting with an action word and containing a number.

EDUCATION — Degree or Diploma, Institution Name, Year

CERTIFICATIONS & LICENCES — HACCP, food hygiene, SIRA, DHA, trade certificate, CMA / ACCA, Opera, Micros, Sun Systems

LANGUAGES — English, Arabic, Hindi, Malayalam, Tagalog, Russian, French (as applicable)

Golden rule

Do not send one CV to fifty jobs. Change the summary line and three or four keywords for each application. Ten tailored applications beat fifty identical ones.

9 How to Track Marriott Jobs Through LinkedIn

LinkedIn is the most powerful free tool you have. Most people use it wrongly — they only scroll. Follow this system instead.

Step 1 — Fix your profile first, before anything else

- Headline: write your target job, not only your current job. Example: Guest Service Agent | Opera PMS | Seeking Front Office Role with a Luxury Hotel in Dubai
- Photo: plain formal photograph, light background, professional clothing.
- Location: set it to Dubai, United Arab Emirates. Recruiters filter by location. If your location shows another country, you will not appear in their search.
- About section: five or six simple lines — who you are, what you do, what you are looking for.
- Skills: add the keywords from Section 8. Recruiters search by skill.
- Open to Work: switch it on. Choose “Recruiters only” if your current employer must not see it. List 4–5 target job titles.

Step 2 — Follow the companies

Search each name and press Follow. Their new job posts then appear in your feed automatically.

Marriott International • Marriott Hotels Middle East • JW Marriott Marquis Hotel Dubai • The Ritz-Carlton • St. Regis Hotels & Resorts • W Hotels • EDITION Hotels • Sheraton Hotels • Le Méridien • Westin Hotels • Renaissance Hotels • Courtyard by Marriott • Four Points by Sheraton • Aloft Hotels • Element Hotels • Bulgari Hotels & Resorts • plus every individual Dubai hotel page you can find

Step 3 — Set up job alerts (the most important step)

- 1 Go to the Jobs tab.
- 2 Type your keyword, for example Guest Service Agent. Set Location to Dubai, United Arab Emirates.
- 3 Apply the filters: Date posted = Past 24 hours, and Company = Marriott International (also try each brand name).
- 4 Switch the “Set alert” toggle to ON and choose Daily.
- 5 Repeat for every keyword. Create a separate alert for each one.

Create alerts using the job titles from your own department in Section 4. Common high-volume ones:

Guest Service Agent • Front Office Supervisor • Room Attendant • Housekeeping Supervisor • Waiter • Bartender • Hostess • Banquet Server • Commis Chef • Chef de Partie • Sous Chef • Income Auditor • Accounts Payable • Chief Accountant • HR Coordinator • Sales Coordinator • Sales Manager • Reservations Agent • Revenue Analyst • Maintenance Technician • HVAC Technician • Security Officer • Spa Therapist • IT Support • Storekeeper • Purchasing Officer

Why “Past 24 hours” matters so much

Popular Dubai hotel jobs receive hundreds of applications within the first two days, and the recruiter often stops reading after the first fifty. Applying within 24 hours can matter more than your qualifications. Check your alerts every single morning from October to December.

Step 4 — Search for the people, not only the jobs

Use the LinkedIn search bar with these phrases, then filter by People and Location = Dubai:

“Talent Acquisition Marriott Dubai” • “Human Resources Manager Marriott Dubai” • “Director of Human Resources hotel Dubai”
“Front Office Manager Dubai” • “Executive Housekeeper Dubai” • “Executive Chef Dubai” • “Director of Finance Marriott Dubai”
“Director of Sales and Marketing Dubai hotel” • “Chief Engineer hotel Dubai”

Two types of people to connect with:

- HR and Talent Acquisition — they control the shortlist.
- Your department head (Executive Chef, Front Office Manager, Director of Finance, and so on) — they are the real hiring managers, and they usually know about a vacancy weeks before it is advertised.

Step 5 — Send a short, polite connection message

Never send a long message. Never attach your CV in the first message. Never write “please give me a job”.

To an HR / Talent Acquisition person:

“Dear [Name], I am a [your role] based in Dubai with [X] years of experience in [your area]. I follow [Hotel Name] closely and would be glad to be considered for any suitable openings in your team. I would be grateful to connect. Thank you for your time.”

To a department head:

“Dear [Name], I am a [your role] working in Dubai and I admire the standards your team maintains at [Hotel Name]. I am currently developing my skills in [specific skill] and would value connecting with you and following your professional insights. Thank you.”

The follow-up rule

After they accept, wait two or three days. Then send one short message thanking them and asking one specific, intelligent question — not a request. Build the relationship first, and ask about a job later, when a real vacancy appears.

Step 6 — Keep a tracking sheet in Excel

Networking without tracking is wasted effort. Make a simple sheet with these columns and update it weekly:

Column	What to write
Date Found	The day you found the person or the job
Name	Full name of the contact
Hotel / Brand	Which Marriott hotel or brand
Department	Front Office, Kitchen, Finance, HR, and so on
Position	Their job title
LinkedIn URL	Direct link to the profile
Request Sent / Connected	Dates for each
Message Sent / Reply Received	Yes or No, with the date
Job Applied	Job title and date of application
Status	Pending / Connected / Interview / Rejected / Closed
Remarks	Anything useful — a mutual contact, a shared home town, a note from the call

A realistic weekly target

15–20 connection requests, 5–8 quality applications, and one follow-up round every Friday. Small and steady beats one big burst of activity.

10 Salary and Allowance Guide — All Departments

These are approximate market ranges for Dubai hotels, for guidance only. The actual offer depends on the brand, hotel size, your experience and your negotiation. Luxury brands generally pay at the higher end. Many entry-level roles also provide free staff accommodation and meals, which adds real value beyond the cash figure.

Entry level (AED 2,500 - 6,000 per month)

Position	Approximate monthly gross
Kitchen Steward / Dishwasher	AED 2,500 - 3,500
Room Attendant / Public Area Attendant	AED 2,500 - 4,000
Laundry Attendant	AED 2,500 - 3,800
Busser / Runner	AED 2,800 - 4,000
Security Officer	AED 3,000 - 4,500

Allowances and benefits — what a hotel package normally includes

Item	Normal treatment in Dubai hotels
Basic salary	Usually 50–60% of the total gross salary
Housing	An allowance of roughly 25–30%, or free shared or single staff accommodation (very common at entry level)
Transport	AED 500 – 1,500, or a free staff bus
Duty meals	Free meals in the staff cafeteria on working days (real value AED 800 – 1,200 a month)
Uniform & laundry	Provided and cleaned free of charge
Medical insurance	Compulsory by law, paid by the employer
Annual air ticket	Economy class to your home country once a year (sometimes once every two years at junior levels)
Annual leave	30 calendar days per year
Gratuity (end of service)	21 days of basic salary per year for the first 5 years, then 30 days per year
Service charge / tips	Some hotels share a service charge or tips pool — can add meaningfully to F&B and spa earnings
Incentives	Spa therapists, sales staff and upselling front office staff often earn commission on top of salary
Staff discounts	Discounted rooms and food at Marriott hotels worldwide — a genuinely valuable benefit

The trap that costs people thousands — always check the basic salary

Hotels often quote an attractive total package that includes accommodation and meals. But your gratuity is calculated only on the basic salary. If your package is AED 9,000 but your basic is only AED 3,500, then after five years your gratuity is built on 3,500 — not 9,000. Always ask for the written breakdown before you accept: basic salary, housing, transport, other allowances. A slightly lower package with a higher basic salary can be worth more over the long run.

11 Interview Preparation

Hotel words you should know before any interview

Term	Simple meaning
PMS / Opera	Property Management System — the software holding all bookings, rooms and guest charges
POS / Micros	Point of Sale — the billing system used in restaurants and bars
Occupancy	The percentage of rooms sold out of rooms available
ADR	Average Daily Rate — room revenue divided by rooms sold
RevPAR	Revenue Per Available Room — ADR multiplied by occupancy; the most watched hotel number
Upselling	Offering a guest a better room or extra service at check-in to increase revenue
Brand Standard	The exact rules Marriott sets for how everything must be done
Marriott Bonvoy	Marriott's guest loyalty programme — members receive priority treatment
GSS / Guest Voice	The guest satisfaction score, taken from guest surveys and reviews
HACCP	The international food safety control system used in all hotel kitchens
Heart of House	Staff-only areas behind the scenes
MOD	Manager on Duty — the manager responsible for the whole hotel during that shift

Questions asked in almost every hotel interview

1. Tell me about yourself. (90 seconds only — who you are, what you do, why hotels.)
2. Why do you want to work in hospitality, and why this brand?
3. Tell me about a difficult guest or customer, and how you handled it.
4. How do you work under pressure during a very busy shift?
5. Are you comfortable with shift work, weekends, public holidays and standing for long hours?
6. Tell me about a time you worked as part of a team.
7. What would you do if you made a mistake that affected a guest?
8. What is your visa status and notice period?
9. What salary are you expecting? (Give a range, never a single fixed number.)

Questions you should ask them

- How large is the team, and who would I report to?
- Is this a Marriott-managed or a franchised property?
- What does a normal shift pattern look like in this role?
- Is staff accommodation and transport provided?
- What does success look like in the first six months?
- What opportunities are there to move within the Marriott group?

Preparation that costs nothing but wins jobs

Before the interview, look up the hotel: how many rooms, how many restaurants, which area of Dubai, which brand tier, and read three recent guest reviews. Mentioning one specific fact about the property shows real interest and separates you from 90% of candidates. Also — arrive 15 minutes early, dress formally, and bring printed copies of everything.

12 Your 30-Day Action Plan

Week 1 — Build the foundation

- ☐ Rewrite your CV in the simple format from Section 8
- ☐ Create your profile on careers.marriott.com and upload the CV
- ☐ Update your LinkedIn headline, photo, location and skills
- ☐ Scan and save all certificates, licences, passport, visa and Emirates ID in one folder
- ☐ Switch on “Open to Work”

Week 2 — Build the tracking system

- ☐ Follow all Marriott brand and hotel pages on LinkedIn
- ☐ Create daily job alerts for every job title in your department

- ☐ Save your search on careers.marriott.com and turn on email alerts
- ☐ Register on Hozpitality, Bayt, Indeed and GulfTalent
- ☐ Build your Excel tracking sheet with the columns from Section 9

Week 3 — Start networking

- ☐ Connect with 20 HR and Talent Acquisition people in Marriott Dubai hotels
- ☐ Connect with 15 department heads in your own field
- ☐ Record every one of them in the tracking sheet
- ☐ Learn the hotel terms in Section 11
- ☐ Complete any missing certificate you can finish quickly (food hygiene, first aid, basic Opera)

Week 4 — Apply and follow up

- ☐ Apply to every suitable job within 24 hours of it appearing
- ☐ Tailor the CV summary and keywords for each application
- ☐ Check the hospitality job boards for franchised hotel jobs
- ☐ Send polite follow-up messages to contacts who accepted your request
- ☐ Practise your 90-second self-introduction out loud, at least ten times

Remember the timing

Try to finish all four weeks before the end of September. Then October, November and December become your months of applying and interviewing — not your months of preparing.

13 A Short Note on the Current Market

Dubai's hotel industry went through a difficult first half of 2026 because of regional tensions, which reduced international visitor numbers for several months. Recruitment slowed during that period across all departments.

The position is now improving. Airlines are restoring their flight capacity, the government has provided support measures to the hospitality sector, and hotels are preparing for the winter tourist season. Most industry analysts expect a steady recovery through the final quarter of 2026 and into 2027.

What this means for you, in one line

The situation is changing month by month. Do not judge the market by what you heard six months ago, and do not judge it by one quiet week. Prepare properly, watch the October to December window closely, and check the latest position before making any big career decision.

Final advice

- Be patient with the process. Hotel recruitment is slow. Three to eight weeks is normal.
- Do not stop after ten applications. Most people who succeed applied to more than fifty.
- One warm contact beats fifty cold applications. Spend at least a third of your effort on networking.
- Take the door that opens. Get inside the hotel, perform, then transfer internally to where you want to be.
- Keep learning while you search. Every certificate and every week of practice improves your interview.
- Never pay anyone for a job. Genuine UAE employers do not charge candidates.
